
ESRIF Findings and Conclusions

ESRIF Chairman Dragutin
Mate

The ESRIA is organised in the following five clusters:

1. Security cycle preventing, protecting, preparing, responding and recovering
2. Countering of different means of attack
3. Securing critical assets
4. Securing identity, access and movement of people and goods
5. Cross-cutting enablers

ESRIFs 9 Key messages:

- Societal Security
- Societal Resilience
- Trust
- Awareness raising through education and training
- Innovation
- Industrial policy
- Interoperability
- A systematic approach to capability development
- Security by design

ESRIFs recommendations encompass the following themes:

- Common European Capabilities
- New policy initiatives
- Integrated approach to security
- The global dimension
- Security Research: the future

ESRIFs Final Report consists of 4 parts:

- Executive Summary
- Part I (~40 pages)
- Part II (~250 pages)
- Annexes